

membership for another review before the next meeting. A reminder was given that the documents on Blackboard and personal work experience can help inform ideas.

Dr. Pedersen reminded the membership that values are inherent and held sacred and from our goals