This federal loan is available to who are enrolled at least half-time (6 or more credits per semester) in an eligible program leading to a degree or certificate.

The borrower must be the parent (custodial or non-custodial) or stepparent of the student. A stepparent is eligible to borrow a Direct PLUS loan only if his/her income and assets would be considered when calculating the dependent student's Student Aid Index (SAI). Legal guardians and relatives other than parents/stepparents cannot apply for the Direct PLUS Loan.

The borrower and the student must be U.S. citizens or eligible non-citizens, not be in default on any federal education loans, and not owe an overpayment on a federal education grant.
