

Process for Approving or Amending the Constitutions for Student Publications

The editorial board and faculty adviser of each student publication is responsible for developing and proposing a constitution, and/or recommending any revisions, to the Campus Student Publications Board. The Campus Student Publications Board shall review the constitution and/or proposed revisions and forward its recommendation regarding adoption or amendment to the Dean of Student Services. The Dean of Student Services shall consult with the Vice President for Student Affairs, and others as deemed appropriate, in order to insure compliance with appropriate college policies. The Dean of Student Services shall then notify the chairperson of the Campus Student Publications Board and the editor-in-chief and faculty adviser of the publication of his/her decision. The editorial board may appeal the Dean's decision to the College Student Publications Board.

*Approved, June 20, 2002
Board of Directors*