

Local Sports

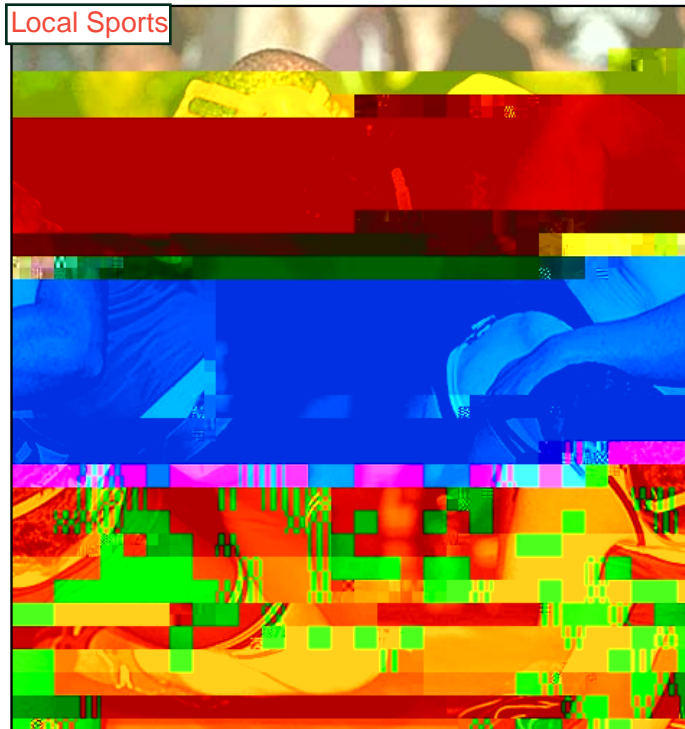

Photo credit: George A. Faella

Sachem North vs. Connetquot

Connetquot High School in Bohemia beat visiting Sachem North High School in Lake Ronkonkoma, 48-15, in a match of two of Long Island's top 10 wrestling teams. Connetquot's Josh Gutierrez wrestles Sachem North's Sal Baldinuzi in the 285-pound weight class.

Photo courtesy of Drew Blonido/SCC

Satoko Matthews of East Patchogue won first place in Suffolk Community College Culinary School's Battle of the Beach Competition. Matthews won a seven-night stay at the Sheraton Clearwater Beach Resort in Clearwater, Fla. (including round-trip airfare and ground transportation) and the 3rd annual Candlelight Ball. The event raised about $450,000 for programs and services for intellectual and developmentally disabled children and adults.

Photo courtesy of Michelle Serarodo/AHRC Suffolk

Peter Cosentino, managing partner of Cosentino Realty Corp, was the honoree at Bohemia's AHRC Suffolk 3rd annual Candlelight Ball. The event raised about $450,000 for programs and services for intellectual and developmentally disabled children and adults. Cosentino is pictured with AHRC Suffolk's CEO William Leonard.

Photo courtesy of Jennifer Kuehner/Syntax

Nick O'Brien, a student at Ward Melville High School in East Setuaket, had the chance to hear his orchestral piece, "Black Fog," resound off the walls of the concert hall at Adelphi University when the Metropolitan Youth Orchestra's Suffolk Principal Orchestra performed the selection.

Photo courtesy of Stony Brook University

Robert P. Woroniecki, MD, MS, a pediatric nephrologist specializing in childhood hypertension, joined Stony Brook Children's Hospital. He was appointed chief of the division of pediatric nephrology at Stony Brook University of Medicine.