

The authority to name physical and nonphysical assets of Suffolk County Community College (College), such as buildings, facilities, campus areas, and academic programs or departments with the College's Board of Trustees is appropriate when a significant gift is received for the benefit of the College through the Suffolk Community College Recommendations not associated with a donation in honor of living or deceased staff, alumnus, faculty, Board member, state or national leader shall be considered on a case-by-case basis and only when supported by justification for the naming.

